

fly.

*As I sit here waiting for creation to find me
It can't be lost
And neither can I
I'd hate to think that only
Days when I'm upset and lonely
Hold the key to what I need to fly.*

*Set my world on fire,
Fill my heart with light,
Consume me with sweet peace of mind
As I embrace my flight.*

*I realize that I was born a child of light
Yet darkness can hide my identity
But through trust and understanding
Judgment gone, no reprimanding
It's through you I gain true clarity of sight.*

*Set my world on fire,
Fill my heart with light,
Consume me with sweet peace of mind
Join me in my flight.*

Your love keeps lifting me higher

*Than ever believed I could soar.
Love lift me up where I belong
I've no need to hide anymore.*

*I believe I can fly
Through your eyes I can see that I...*

*...am a shining son,
I'm a moonlit night,
I'm a shooting star,
Bathing the world with light.*

*Starting here,
Starting now,
As you hold my hand,
At the edge of this cliff*

*With no fear
No way, no how
Let your feet leave the sand
In midair, receive this gift*

*Set my world on fire
Fill my heart with light
Consume me with sweet peace of mind
It's yours to claim, this very night*

Release your fear, embrace the flight

Take a deep breath in.

Exhale and sigh.

Live free. Be love.
