

YOU'RE MY DADDY

by Kye Brackett

Last night I dreamed I saw him
My eldest son, my only one
He said, "Daddy I can see me in your eyes".
He said, "I can see all of your dreams
...and the problems you faced,

And I know sometimes you feel alone
As though you're drifting in space
(Though you're not alone)
How I wish I could take all your tears
...and just wipe them away.

But I'm only a kid and that's all I can do for today"

Daddy, how I love you so much
...and I long for your touch in my life.

(Forever and ever)
Daddy, I need your arms to surround me
And I need you always around me,
Until my life is through
I never wanna be without you
You're my daddy.

Last night I dreamed I saw her
My little girl, to me the world
She said, "Daddy I can feel it when you cry"
I can feel your pride as you watched me
...ride my bike all alone;
How you watched me ride off into neighborhoods that
...I'd never known.

(I can feel you near)
I'm so sorry I worried you so the night of my first date
I tried to call you when time slipped away and I knew I'd be late"
But, Daddy I know you understand
So please, hold my hand for a while

(I love walking with you)
Daddy, to me, you'll always be the man
That does everything he can to make me smile
And I will always be your little girl
You're my daddy."

And then I dreamed I saw him
My baby boy, my pride and joy
He said, "Daddy I will miss you when you're gone."
And as he spoke I looked down at his face and got ...choked up inside...
To think my little boy thought of the day I wouldn't be there, for his favorite piggyback ride.
I can't imagine the strength that it took for him
...to look up and say

"Daddy I'm scared to be without you
Take me if you go away".

Daddy, yes I love you so much and
I'm so glad that you touched my life.
(I needed you badly)
Daddy, please be there forever to guide me,
To comfort me and stick beside me.
And yet, I know I never will,
But in my dreams forever I am still...
Your daddy....

And you're my eldest son,
My little girl,
My baby boy,
My pride and joy
You called me Daddy.
